

An Almost PURRRFECT MURDER

Book Club Questions

Do you think Frankie was exaggerating the effect that Penny's marriage would have on her social life? Have you had a similar experience? Did it turn out well? Or were your fears justified?

Detective Martin Bowers arranges to meet the ship in Juneau. Would you appreciate or resent this if your loved one "came to your rescue"? Why?

Frankie has difficulty seeing herself as a Woman, and all that that implies. Have you ever struggled with this? What are some examples?

Frankie's first impression of Sonya is that she is a "witchy woman". Did you find that Sonya grew on you as the story went on? Did you sympathize with her? Or do you think she chose Marv with her eyes open and that's just too bad?

Sonya is caught up in a contract that gives away her rights to her Baby Cat. Have you ever made a seemingly benign promise and found that you had given away more than you intended?

Frankie asks Sonny Street to steal a room key for her. Have you ever been asked to do something that might put you or your job in jeopardy? Did you do it?

At the end of the last book, Bowers was afraid to get close to Frankie because of her "gift". Do you think he deserves a second chance?
