

AN UNHEALTHY ATTACHMENT

1. Do you believe that Father McAllister was, in fact, being harassed by an entity? Or do you think he was suffering from mental illness or a vivid imagination?
2. Do you think that evil exists and that it can tempt us? Or is man wholly responsible for his own actions?
3. Have you ever experienced something you can't explain? Or if you did you would sound nuts?
4. Do you think Father McAllister should have explained what was happening to Mother Margaret? How do you think she would have reacted?
5. Kami was being manipulated by her brother. Do you think an adult should have spotted this sooner? Why do you think Kami didn't speak up?
6. Have you ever been manipulated by someone? Did it make you feel powerless?
7. Do you think Father Santos acted as a grounding force in Father McAllister's life?
8. What would you do if you discovered an underage girl was pregnant?
9. Father Santos brought Father McAllister to a group of men who kept each other informed about what was happening in the neighborhood. Do you think groups like this are helpful? Can you think of some reasons why they wouldn't be?

10. In the end, good triumphed over evil in more than one way. Do you think this is true most of the time?

11. Father McAllister winds up back at the school – post demon. He seems much calmer now. Have you ever returned to the scene where something bad happened and found you could move past it now that the threat was removed?
